Introduction

Context
This Privacy Policy establishes guidelines which must be observed in relation to the collection, use, storage, security and disclosure of personal, sensitive and health information.

Purpose
The Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic) and the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988 and related legislation set out privacy principles which must be observed by organisations that hold personal information. The rights and obligations of staff and students with respect to personal information as set out in this Policy and Procedure are based on these principles.

Scope
This Policy applies to personal information collected by the Institute concerning staff, students, prospective students, individual clients and other individuals. “Students” includes all students enrolled through any study mode or any campus.
Policy and Procedure

Privacy Policy

Federation Training is committed to complying with State and Commonwealth privacy legislation, including the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic) and the Information Privacy Principles (IPP) as well as the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988 and the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012 and the Australian Privacy Principles (APP) contained therein. This policy provides:

- a procedure for the responsible collection and handling of personal information.
- a process to provide individuals with a right to access information about them which is held by the Institute and to correct any errors in that information; and
- a complaints procedure for investigation and rectification of breaches of this policy.

Privacy Procedure

Collection of information

Only personal information that is necessary and directly related to one of Federation Training’s functions will be collected. Federation Training collects personal information, including sensitive information, about prospective and current students, parents/guardians/care-providers, staff, contractors and sub-contractors.

This information may include (depending on the services provided and accessed):

- Names and other related contact details
- Staff or student identification numbers
- Email addresses
- Emergency contacts
- Photographic identification;
- Video images through CCTV, webinars and class video capture
- Qualifications, history and progress
- Information relating to entitlements to related educational government payments or support (e.g. VET FEE HELP)
- Complaints or misconduct details or information;
- Working With Children checks or National Police Checks if related to course or employment;
- Information necessary to deliver a health or disability service if necessary to deliver that service
- Other related personal information required for the effective management of Federation Training

Personal information is collected to:

- Enable Federation Training to deliver education services;
- Meet the wider functional needs of Federation Training, including financial management, legal accountability and national reporting requirements;
- Meet the requirements of legislation or external government agencies.

At the time and point of collection, individuals will be provided with reasons regarding what information is being collected and held, the purpose for holding the information and how the information is to be used or disclosed.

Any person who is to be photographed or quoted in marketing and/or promotional materials of the Institute will first be asked to give their permission in writing, utilising the Federation Training Public Release Form.

Information that is collected will be held securely to prevent any security breaches.
Information Privacy Principles—Guidance

The Privacy Principles set down in Commonwealth and State legislation are for the most part similar and Federation Training is committed to meeting the requirements of both of these levels of government.

In order to provide Institute staff and students with some appropriate guidance regarding privacy, and especially given the recent release of the Australian Privacy Principles, the following information aligns Federation Training policy against the relevant APPs.

APP 1 – OPEN AND TRANSPARENT MANAGEMENT OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Federation Training shall maintain this policy and ensure that it is publicly available, via publishing on its website or on request by an individual.

Federation Training will take all reasonable steps to ensure that information collected:

- Is necessary for Federation Training’s purposes;
- Is relevant to the purpose of collection;
- Is collected in a fair way, without unreasonable intrusion; and
- Is as up to date and complete as possible.

APP 2 – ANONYMITY AND PSEUDONYMITY

Because of the nature of Federation Training’s core business, it will usually be impractical for individual’s transacting with Federation Training to have the option of not identifying themselves. However where it is lawful and practical to do so, Federation Training will give the individual this option.

APP 3 – COLLECTION OF SOLICITED PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Federation Training shall only collect personal, sensitive and health information that is necessary to perform one or more of its legal functions or activities.
- Personal, sensitive or health information shall not be collected without consent.
- Federation Training must collect information only by lawful and fair means

APP 4 – DEALING WITH UNSOLICITED PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Where Federation Training collects unsolicited personal, sensitive and health information in the course of its activities that information will be reviewed within a reasonable timeframe to determine whether Federation Training could have gathered that information if solicited and if practicable, reasonable and lawful destroy or de-identify the unsolicited personal information.

APP 5 – NOTIFICATION OF THE COLLECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

At the time of collection of information Federation Training shall advise the individual of:

- The reason for the collection of the information.
- The purpose for which it will be used.
- To whom the information may be disclosed.
- Any law that requires the particular information to be collected.
- Where it is impractical to furnish the advice indicated above to the individual at the time of collection, Federation Training shall forward this advice to the person as soon as practicable after the fact.
APP 6 – USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information, including sensitive information and health information, may be used for the following purposes:

Students:
- Application, Pre-Training Review and Foundation Skills Assessments
- Enrolment
- Course administration
- Academic progress
- Scholarship selection
- Provision of services to students
- Careers or academic pathways services

Staff:
- Selection
- Appointment
- Review
- Promotion
- General administration
- Provision of services to staff
- Regulatory compliance

Information collected will not be divulged to any third party for any reason other than the primary purpose for its collection. This notwithstanding, Federation Training may disclose student’s personal information in the following instances:

- Academic progress information to another institution or related body as required in the course of a student's transfer to a new institution;
- Personal and enrolment information, including academic results, or students undertaking cross-institutional study to the relevant institution as required to confirm the student's enrolment or qualification;
- Personal information to relevant organisations engaged by Federation Training to provide debt recovery services
- Personal and enrolment information, including academic results, of students undertaking an apprenticeship or traineeship to their employer
- Personal and enrolment information of students undertaking Vocational Education and Training in a VET in the VCE or schools program, to their secondary school and parents, providing confidentiality is assured.
- Personal and enrolment information, including academic results, of staff undertaking a qualification with Federation Training to the People and Culture team for the purposes of personnel administration
- Government departments such as the Australian Taxation Office, the Department of Innovation, the Department of Immigration and Border Protection and the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development.

Where your consent is required to disclose your personal information to a third party, or to obtain information from a third party about you, then the following forms will be used, as appropriate:

- Authority to Obtain Information Form PRIV 001
- Information Consent Form PRIV 002
- Authorisation to Disclose Information Form PRIV 003
- Group Authorisation to Disclose Information Form PRIV 004
Secondary purposes

Federation Training may disclose your information for a secondary purpose where it has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being or may be engaged in, and uses or discloses the information as a necessary part of its investigation of the matter or in reporting its concerns to relevant persons or authorities and, if Federation Training, would not be breaching confidence by such use or disclosure.

Federation Training may disclose health information for a secondary purpose where it reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is reasonably necessary for a law enforcement function by or on behalf of a law enforcement agency and, the use or disclosure would not be a breach of confidence.

Emergency situations and criminal activity:

Federation Training may disclose your information for a secondary purpose if it reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is necessary to lessen or prevent:

- a serious and imminent threat to an individual's life, health, safety or welfare; or
- a serious threat to public health, public safety or public welfare; and the information is used or disclosed in accordance with relevant legislative or regulatory guidelines.

APP 7 – DIRECT MARKETING

Federation Training may use or disclose personal information (other than sensitive information) about an individual for the purpose of direct marketing if:

- Federation Training collected the information directly from the individual, and the individual would reasonably expect Federation Training to use or disclose the information for the purpose of direct marketing; and
- Federation Training provides a simple means by which the individual may easily request not to receive direct marketing communication from Federation Training (opt-out); and
- The individual has not made such a request to Federation Training.

Federation Training will, on request, notify an individual of its source of the individual’s personal information that it has used or disclosed for the purpose of direct marketing unless this is unreasonable or impracticable to do so.

APP 8 – CROSS-BORDER DISCLOSURE

Federation Training will only transfer personal or health information about an individual to someone (other than Federation Training or the individual) who is outside Australia if:

a. Federation Training reasonably believes that the recipient of the information is subject to a law, binding scheme or contract with effectively upholds principles for fair handling of the information that are substantially similar the Privacy principles set out in this Policy; or

b. The individual consents to the transfer; or

c. Federation Training has taken reasonable steps to ensure that the information which it has transferred will not be held, used or disclosed by the recipient of the information inconsistently with the principles set out in this policy.
APP 9 – ADOPTION, USE OR DISCLOSURE OF GOVERNMENT RELATED IDENTIFIERS

Federation Training will not adopt as its own unique identifier of an individual a unique identifier of that individual that has been assigned by another organisation. Federation Training will not disclose a government related identifier of an individual unless required under law.

Federation Training will not assign unique identifiers to individuals except for a Staff Number to identify a staff member and a Student Number to identify a student. Staff and Student Numbers are considered necessary for Federation Training to carry out its functions efficiently.

Federation Training will not require an individual to provide a unique identifier in order to obtain a service unless the provision of the unique identifier is required or authorised by law or the provision is in connection with the purpose (or a directly related purpose) for which the unique identifier was assigned.

APP 10 – QUALITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Federation Training shall take all reasonable steps to ensure the information it collects is accurate, complete and up to date and is relevant to its role.
- Federation Training shall take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that records containing personal, sensitive or health related information are accurate, up to date and complete before being used for any relevant, lawful purpose.
- Federation Training shall ensure that it does not intrude, to an unreasonable extent, upon the personal affairs of any individual.

APP 11 – SECURITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Federation Training shall take all reasonable steps to ensure the data collected is protected from misuse and loss, and is safe from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. Information no longer required will be destroyed or stored securely (if storage is a requirement of other legislation, or as required by record maintenance legislation.)
- Where records are disclosed to another entity or person for provision of service to Federation Training all reasonable efforts shall be made to prevent unauthorised disclosure of information contained in the records.

APP 12 – ACCESS TO PERSONAL INFORMATION

- An individual is entitled to access any record which contains personal, sensitive or health related information about the person except where Federation Training is legally entitled to refuse access under State or Commonwealth legislation.
- The entitlement does not include access to information regarding other individuals in any group record.
- A student may request access to their personal information by writing to the Director Quality and Compliance.
- A staff member may request access to their personal information by writing to the Director People and Culture.
- Access to appropriate and relevant information will be provided within 30 days from receipt of the request. Hard copy and/or a computer record may be viewed, but not removed or altered.

APP 13 – CORRECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Where an individual requests a correction to personal, sensitive or health related information maintained by Federation Training a correction shall be made to the information provided that the record amendment does not contravene any legislative requirements.
- All information that is not accurate will be amended within 5 days of receiving a written request to amend it.
- Any denial of access or correction shall be recorded on an individual’s records along with reasons for the denial.
Complaints against the Institute for Breach of Information Privacy Principles

If an individual considers the Institute has breached an Information Privacy Principle in respect of that individual:

a) A written complaint must be forwarded to the Director People and Culture (for complaints by staff/contractors) or Director Curriculum and Quality (for complaints by students), as appropriate within six (6) months of the time the complainant first became aware of the apparent breach. The complaint must specify details of the apparent breach.

b) The Director People and Culture or Director Curriculum and Quality must make a determination on the complaint within forty-five (45) days of receipt of the complaint, and advise the complainant in writing.

c) If the Director People and Culture or Director Curriculum and Quality determines that there has been a breach of the Information Privacy Principles, he or she will, upon notification of the determination to the complainant, advise relevant Institute personnel in writing of any action required in order to remedy the breach. If the breach is capable of being rectified and is not rectified within thirty (30) days of the advice from the Director People and Culture or Director Curriculum and Quality, he or she will inform the Managing Director.

d) The Director People and Culture or Director Curriculum and Quality will keep a record of complaints.

e) If the complaint concerns a Manager or the Director People and Culture the written complaint must be forwarded to the Managing Director.

Consequences if this Policy is breached

Disciplinary action may be taken against any person who breaches this policy. In the event that the Institute considers it to be a serious breach by a staff member, disciplinary action may include summary dismissal.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

(for publication and public display, inclusion in staff and student induction materials etc)

Federation Training is committed to complying with State and Commonwealth privacy legislation. This includes the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic) and the Information Privacy Principles, the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988 and the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012, as well as the Australian Privacy Principles contained therein.

We will only collect personal information that is necessary and directly related to one of Federation Training’s functions.

We will ensure

- Responsible collection and secure handling of your personal information
- Your right to access the information we collect about you

We will not divulge any of your personal information to any third party for any reason other than the primary purpose for which it was collected.

However, personal information can be shared if:

- It is necessary for the purpose for which it was collected or for a secondary purpose which is directly related to that purpose.
- The disclosure is authorised by law, or for law enforcement or investigation.
- The disclosure is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious and imminent threat to life, health or safety
- The person consents to the disclosure on the Institute form “Authorisation to Disclose Information”

Individuals have the responsibility to notify the Institute of changes to their personal information. If you advise us of errors in your information, we will correct them.

We have a Privacy Policy and Procedure, which can be viewed in the libraries and on our website. The Procedure includes a Complaints Procedure for investigation and rectification of breaches of this Policy.
